

Eagles still perfect

C-S tops Lyons to improve to 13-0

By JOSHUA DASAN
jdasan@times.com

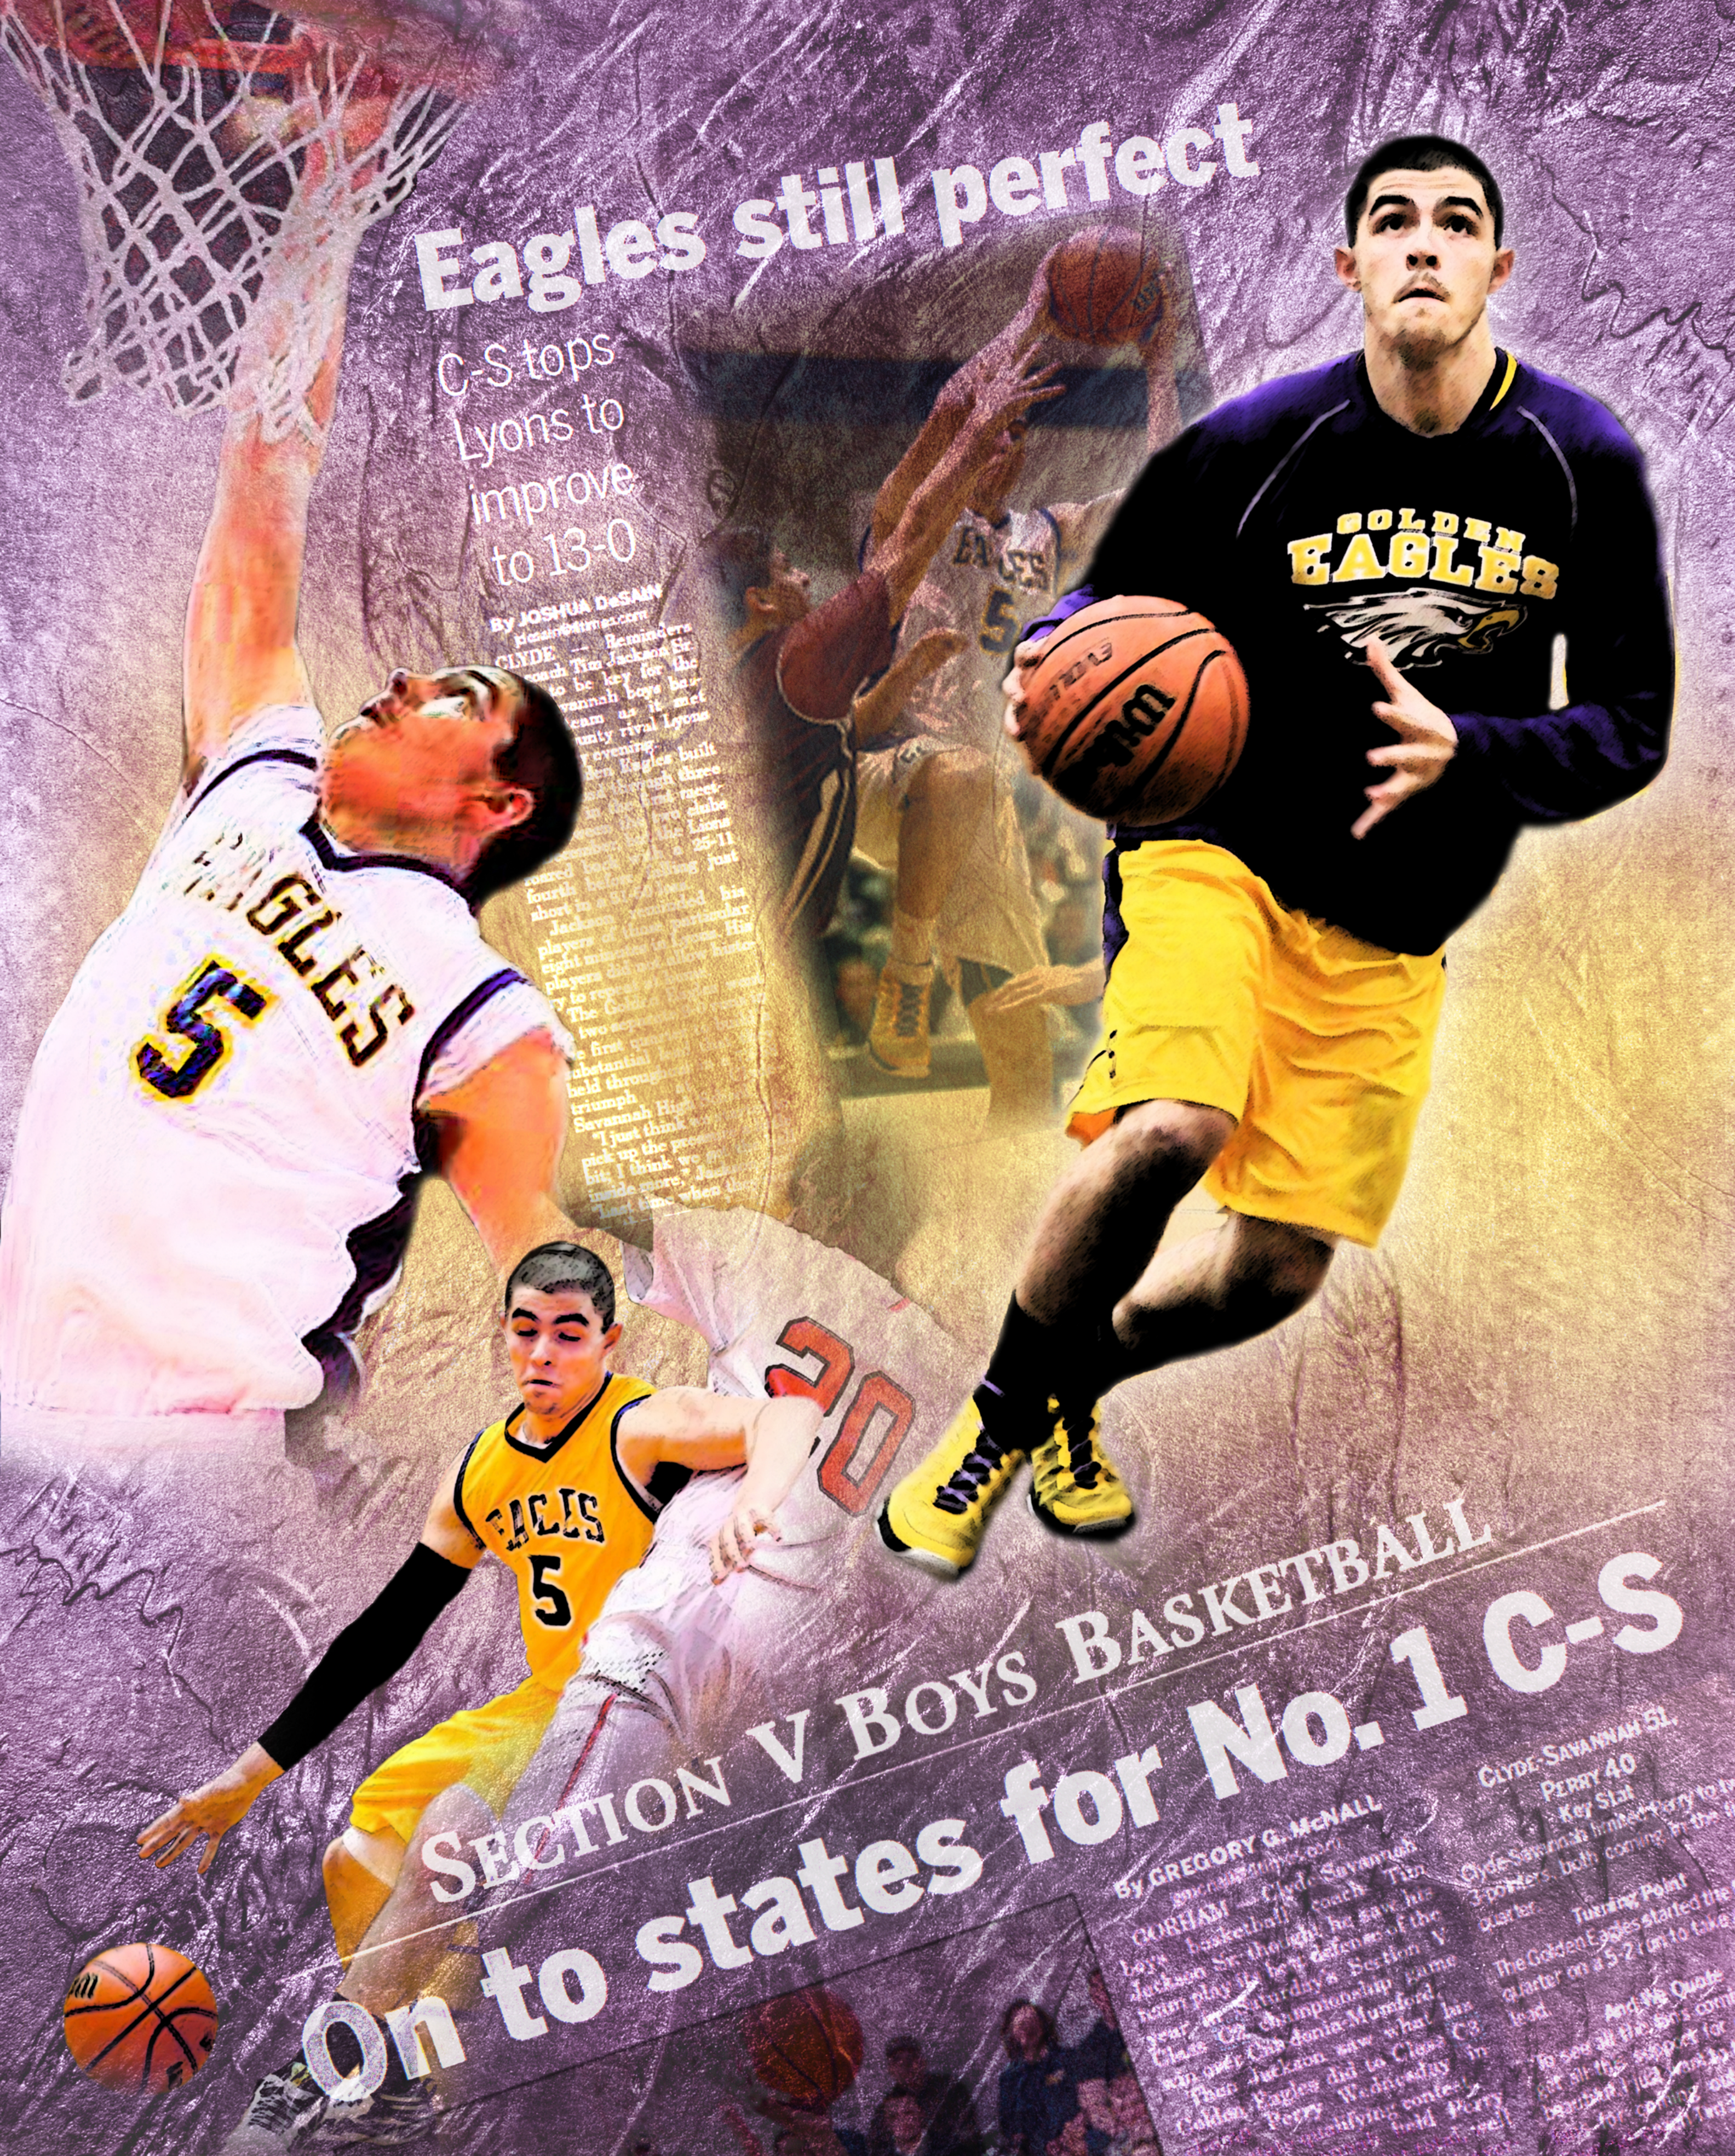

CLYDE — Reminders enough Tim Jackson Sr. to be key for the Savannah boys basketball team as it met county rival Lyons on Tuesday evening.

When Eagles built a lead through three quarters in the first meeting, the two clubs were tied 25-25. Lyons scored back with a fourth before taking just short in a 31-27 loss.

Jackson, nominated his players of the year, particular eight minutes in Lyons. His players did not allow history to repeat itself.

The Golden Eagles went to two separate events in the first quarter to build a substantial lead that held throughout the triumph.

Savannah High School "I just think we pick up the pressure a bit, I think we get inside more," Jackson said last time when they

SECTION V BOYS BASKETBALL On to states for No. 1 C-S

By GREGORY G. McNALL
gmcnall@times.com

CORHAM — Clyde Savannah basketball coach Tim Jackson Sr. thought he gave his team play in the defense of the Class 1C championship game on Tuesday's Section V Golden Eagles saw what has been done at Class 1C.

Then Jackson saw what has been done at Class 1C. The Golden Eagles did to Class 1C on Wednesday in the qualifying conference.

Perry Wednesday in the qualifying conference.

CLYDE-SAVANNAH 51
Perry 40
Key Stat
Clyde Savannah limited Perry to 3 points, both coming in the quarter.

Turning Point
The Golden Eagles started the quarter on a 5-2 run to take the lead.

And the Quote
To see all the boys come out and support for the team, it was a great feeling.